SENIOR PROPHECY

I, Martha Schmit, while attending the Inaugural Ball in the year 1982, was pleased to be the honored guest of Stanley Mosser and his charming wife, Alice Sprunger. Oh, by the way, Stanley ran on the Democratic ticket.

The feature of the evening was opera singer, Mademoiselle Katherine. Later, I was amazed to find that she was Kathleen Grile. Stanley then asked if I would like to attend a Washington Senator ball game, where to my surprise, Harold Vorhees and Orval Bisel were star players.

While on a sightseeing tour, I stopped at one of the larger plantations near Washington, D. C. I was astonished to find Darrell and Cheryl (Bauman) Hendricks to be the proud owners.

Motoring back to town, I had a minor collision with a woman driver, Bonnie Lehman. State Trooper Cody Booher was investigator of the accident. I was then taken to the hospital where I was treated for minor cuts and bruised by veterinarian Dick Lautzenheiser.

The next day I visited the F.B.I., I found that Jeff Striker was taking the place of J. Edgar Hoover.

That evening I enjoyed a Chinese supper at Roy's Beanery. The chef was Roy Bisel. The evening entertainment was the comedian Pat Flanagan.

After the program I boarded my plane for New York. The kind Stewardess was Janet Brown. On arrival I visited the "Remote Cafe" where I had lunch. The proud proprietors were Paul and Rita (Neuenschwander) Moser.

After leaving the cafe, I took a ride about town. I was startled to see every billboard announcing the personal appearance of Pat Schisler. They say she is the second Jane Russell.

I spent the night in a hotel owned by Melvin and Betty (Kirchhofer) Augsburgers.

The next morning while visiting, I heard of the ladies tag team wrestling championship match. Who do you suppose came forth when the bell rang? None other than Sharon Yoder and Patty Brewster, who were a team; Janice Feaster and Beverly Mosser, the other team. What a match!

I also met other classmates on my way back home. In Kentucky I met (coach) Bill Burke and his famous basketball players. Among them were Sandy Doherty, Judy Fosnaugh, Donna Buckingham, and others (they have all dyed their hair red).

When I started back for the green fields of Indiana, I passed a little country church where I saw the familiar faces of Veda Smith and Harry Hoffman. I could tell by their happy expressions that the knot had just been tied. I was surprised to see that a former classmate, the Reverend Max Haskins, had performed the ceremony.

Michele Rupe is now Dean of Indiana University. On her staff are Betty Jones, Mike McGough and Joanna Wheller.

I was also amazed to find that John Walker, David Biery, and David Mathys were owners of the Geneva Bank.

So you see the Class of '62 has done very well for themselves.
